

We offer road designing services for natural and legal entities. The services include consultations, requesting technical provisions from the institutions, project designing, reconciliation of project in responsible institutions, delivery of the project to the customer, consultations during the construction and field supervision of the project.